IKE SIGNS 21 BILLS IN HOUR THIS MORNING

President Eisenhower, reported feeling "stronger and stronger," signed 21 bills today including the $34,656,727,000 defense bill on which he suffered a defeat in Congress.

Eisenhower also signed, in an hour-long session with aides who flew here from Washington, an $893,100,000 public works bill for the Tennessee Valley Authority and other agencies.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty told a news conference the President's doctors informed him this morning Eisenhower is "coming along fine" in recovery from his June 9 operation.

In a change of plans, however, the Army doctor who performed the operation did not return to Washington as originally announced but decided to stay at the farm a few more days.

Interrupted Vacation
Hagerty said this decision by Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton did not reflect any change in the President's condition. Hagerty said the only reason for it was that Heaton interrupted a vacation to take care of the President and now wants to get in some golf and other recreation before returning to his duties as commanding general of Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington.

In heavily overcast weather that delayed their departure from the capital 10 minutes, chief presidential assistant Sherman Adams and other aides arrived at 9:55 a.m. for a work session with the convalescing President at his farm home.

Others who arrived included Col. Andrew J. Goodpastor, White House staff secretary; Gerald D. Morgan, the President's special counsel; and Wayne Hawks, White House chief of records.

They went by car from the Gettysburg airport to the President's farm.

Sunday was the Eisenhower's 40th wedding anniversary. They observed it by cutting a cake which already had been cut in honor of their weekend house guests, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Leonard D. Heaton, who were married 10 years after the Eisenhower's.

In addition the President and his wife received a number of gifts and messages. Among the gifts were an Aberdeen Angus heifer for the farm herd and a flowering peach tree. The heifer was the gift of the 48 Republican state chairmen. The tree was sent (Continued On Page 2)

Mr. And Mrs. Jesse E. Snyder Mark Golden Wedding Day

MR. AND MRS. SNYDER

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse E. Snyder, 217 Baltimore St., which will occur on Wednesday, July 4, was celebrated Sunday afternoon with an "open house" at the Snyder home when scores of relations and friends gathered to offer congratulations.

Mr. Snyder, former borough councilman and for more than four decades a clerk in the Gettysburg post office, is a son of B. Daniel and Elizabeth (Trostle) Snyder and is a native of Adams County. Mrs. Snyder is the daughter of June F. and Alice (Spangler) Tipton and was born in Adams County.

They were married July 4, 1906, at Hagerstown, Md., by the late Rev. S. W. Owens, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church there.

Postal Clerk 44 Years
Mr. Snyder had come to Gettysburg in 1902 where he clerked in Harry Stine's store and in 1904 he went into the grocery business at 23 Chambersburg St. where Chritzman's jewelry store is located now.

The year he was married he was appointed a substitute clerk at the Gettysburg post office and in 1913 he became a regular clerk. He continued in the postal service until his retirement in 1950.

During 1907 and 1908 while Mr. Snyder was a substitute clerk at the post office, he and Mrs. Snyder served as night nurses in the insane department at the Adams County Home.

Mr. Snyder served as a member of the Gettysburg Town Council.

MISS STINSON AND C. WM. LAKE WED SATURDAY
Miss Barbara Sue Stinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Henry Stinson, Emmitsburg, became the bride of Charles William Lake, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lake, Philadelphia, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg.

The Rev. Fr. John F. Sullivan, C.M., pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with white summer flowers.

Miss Stinson, who was escorted to the altar by her uncle, J. Ward Kerrigan, because of the illness of her father, wore a white floor-length gown of embroidered nylon tulle in traditional bridal design.

Her tulle veil was attached to a pearl tiara and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. G. Howard Gillelan, Baltimore, was the matron of honor. She wore a gown in two shades of turquoise chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Reception Is Held
Bridal attendants were Mrs. Thomas Billie, Baltimore; Miss Joanne Minter, Kensington, Md., and Mrs. Guy Baker Jr., Emmitsburg. They wore turquoise gowns and carried bouquets similar to Mrs. Gillelan's.

George Lake III, Philadelphia, was the best man. Ushers were Richard Church and Richard Miller, Philadelphia, and G. Howard Gillelan, Baltimore.

Mrs. Stinson wore a rose beige gown with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a rose lace dress with matching accessories. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held after the wedding at the home of the bride's parents on the Gettysburg Road near Emmitsburg.

The bride was graduated from the University of Maryland in 1954. She is teaching at the Upper Merion High School, King of Prussia, Pa. Her husband, who graduated from Dartmouth College in 1950, is a stock broker for Hornblower and Weeks, Philadelphia.

Out-of-town guests were from Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington.

CHARGES DROPPED
Horace Stiggs, Hamilton City, Calif., charged with assault and battery and committed to the Adams County jail Friday, was released from jail with charges withdrawn today. The cost was paid by the prosecutor, Viola E. Kessel, R. 5, filed the charge and Stiggs was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

MOTHER OF TWO TAKES HER LIFE WITH SHOTGUN

A 32-year-old Fairfield R. 1 mother, Mrs. Lucille Nettle (Gladhill) Gessaman, Sunday sent her husband off on a fishing trip and then went to the basement of her Liberty Twp. home and fired both charges of a 20-gauge shotgun through her chest.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, and state police who joined in the investigation said death was self-inflicted. They reported she had spread a quilt in the basement, laid down and fired the shotgun by using a stick or broom handle to which nails had been attached to operate the triggers of the shotgun.

The death was discovered by a sister-in-law, Mrs. Claude Gladhill, Fairfield R. 1, when she returned to the Gessaman home Sunday morning about 11:30 o'clock with Mrs. Gessaman's two sons, who had been at Sunday School. Mrs. Gessaman's husband, Aaron Gessaman, and her brother, Claude Gladhill, were on a fishing trip Sunday to Licking Creek, and Mrs. Gladhill had intended to "pick up" her sister-in-law and take her to her home to spend the remainder of the day until the two husbands returned.

Finds Two Notes
Going into the house, Mrs. Gladhill found the house silent and then discovered two notes, one written to her and one to Mr. Gessaman stating Mrs. Gessaman's sorrow at disturbing the family by what she planned to do, and giving the details of her suicide plan.

Mrs. Gladhill immediately called Dr. Robert A. Kiefer, Blue Ridge Summit, the family physician who had been treating Mrs. Gessaman for the last two weeks. She had been despondent for some time, but had seemed to recover and then, two weeks ago, again became despondent and was undergoing treatment. Dr. Kiefer, going to the basement of the house, found the body.

A native of Fairfield R. 1, Mrs. Gessaman was a daughter of Oscar W. Gladhill, Coatesville Veterans Hospital, and Esther Ann (Kipe) Gladhill, Fairfield R. 1, and resided her entire life in the Fairfield R. 1 area.

Services Wednesday
She was a graduate of Washington Twp. High School with the class of 1941 and had been employed in the office at the Wood Embley Brass Foundry near Rouzer'sville. She was a member of St. Jacob's Evangelical and Reformed Church and of the Ladies' Guild of that church and was a Sunday School teacher in the Beginners' department.

Surviving are her parents; her husband whom she wed in 1947; two children, Donald Lee and Dale Claude, at home; and three brothers, Claude and Earl Gladhill at Fairfield R. 1 and Oscar W. Gladhill at Coatesville.

Feiser Funeral Home in New Oxford with the Rev. Lester J. Karschner, pastor of the deceased, officiating. Interment was in St. John's Cemetery, Abbottstown. The bearers were Helmer Hoover, George and Glenn Haar, Wilson Linebaugh, Chester Loper and Edgar Moul.

All 128 Persons Aboard 2 Giant Airlines Which Crashed Saturday Into Grand Canyon Found Dead

By FRANK WETZEL and LAWRENCE MALKIN
GRAND CANYON, Ariz. (AP)—All 128 persons aboard two giant airlines which crashed into the Grand Canyon were found dead, making the Saturday disaster the worst in commercial aviation history.

Helicopter crews planned to risk the treacherous peaks and air currents of the vast gorge to try to remove the bodies today.

A Trans World Airlines Super Constellation and a United Air Lines DC7 apparently collided in flight before they went down in the northern Arizona wastelands Saturday.

At Tip Of Canyon
Airline and government authorities are investigating. Both planes were en route east from Los Angeles. The Constellation carried 64 passengers and a crew of 6; the DC7 53 passengers and 5 crew members.

The wreckage was found on two jagged buttes at the southeastern tip of the canyon.

The buttes are a two-day hike over perilous terrain. The only way to get there sooner is by helicopter.

Fanatic Coincidence.
Capt. James Womack, a helicopter pilot who flew to the crash

Carrier Boys' Merchants Plan In Effect Today

Beginning today The Gettysburg "Times" "Little Merchant Plan" goes into effect, a progressive step in the delivery of the newspaper.

Under this new plan the carriers become "Little Merchants." They are in complete charge of their own business, their newspaper route of subscribers to The Time. They are engaged in a business venture that will be of much benefit to them. They will learn how to do business on a fairly large scale and will be their own "boss" and "manager."

The plan also benefits them financially. Each carrier receives the entire increase in the subscription rate of The Times, seven cents per week. Thus his weekly salary will be almost doubled what it was under the former collector plan.

Each carrier will collect from each subscriber once a week and subscribers are urged to cooperate by paying his or her carrier boy each Friday evening or Saturday morning, according to arrangements which they will make with their carrier.

All present paid in advance subscriptions will be honored at the old rate through the expiration date.

FIVE INJURED IN SUNDAY CRASH NEAR FAIRFIELD

Five persons were injured Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock when two cars collided two miles north of Fairfield on the Orrtanna Rd. The crash was one of two investigated by state police Sunday.

Hurt in the crash were Mrs. Martina Ann Gorman, 28, Gettysburg R. 3, who was admitted to the Warner Hospital with a fractured left collar bone; her son, David Eugene Gorman, who had abrasions of the right shoulder and back; Dennis Bruce Gorman, one, bruised nose and lip; Rexay Ann Gorman, seven, who was being x-rayed today for possible injuries; and Mrs. Helen Edith Myers, Union Bridge R. 1, Md., who had a broken rib.

Police said Donald B. Gorman, 31, Gettysburg R. 3, was driving east on Township Route 307 and entered the Fairfield-Orrtanna Rd. Harvey Clarence Myers, 61, Union Bridge R. 1, was driving north on the Orrtanna Rd. when the front of the Myers car smashed into the side of the Gorman vehicle, turning it over on its roof. David Eugene Gorman was pinned in the demolished car for a period of time.

Call Rescue Truck
The Gettysburg Fire Department Rescue Truck was called to transport the injured to the Warner Hospital.

COUNTY CHARGED

Reuben Slothour, 74, East Berlin, has been charged by Hanover police with reckless driving as the result of an accident in the 100 block of Baltimore St., Hanover, about 1:30 p.m. Friday. Police reported Slothour was traveling south on Baltimore St. and crashed into the rear end of a car belonging to Wilford R. Button, of Michigan, parked in front of the Wentz Bakery. Damage to the parked machine was estimated at $200 and to Slothour's car at $150, police said. The charge was filed with Justice of the Peace George A. Lippy, Hanover.

Michael J. Flynn, 75, Dies On Sunday; Ill Six Months

Michael J. Flynn, 75, 11 Baltimore St., died Sunday afternoon at 3:58 o'clock at the Warner Hospital where he had been admitted as a patient Thursday. He had been in failing health for the last six months.

A son of the late Patrick J. and Mary (Moore) Flynn, he was born in Centralia and had been in the mining and engineering business at Mt.

Carmel until 1925 when he moved to Gettysburg.

He was employed by the state at Harrisburg until 1938 and then during that year worked for the state commission in charge of the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

In 1939 he was employed by the federal government in Puerto Rico and in 1941 was transferred to Washington where he was with the War Department throughout World War II.

He and his wife, the former Marie A. Stock, would have observed their 45th wedding anniversary on September 14. A brother-in-law of the late Rev. Fr. Mark E. Stock, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic (Continued On Page 3)

Air Force Outfit Plays For Queen

The U. S. Air Force Drum and Bugle Corps, which has made a number of appearances in Gettysburg, today was the feature attraction in the White City stadium, London.

The occasion is the annual "Searchlight Tattoo" a charity concert given for the benefit of veterans' widows.

The American outfit was given top billing. Among those in attendance was Queen Elizabeth.

Assessments In Adams Fall Below 25 Pct.
Assessed valuations of real estate in Adams County are lagging behind the 25 per cent level set by the Adams County Commissioners last year, according to annual figures of the State Tax Equalization Board.

The market value of taxable real estate in Adams County last year rose to $98,770,300, a record high. The same source lists total assessed valuations in the county at $21,993,988 or 22.3 percent of the market value.

In the same year the market value of real estate in Pennsylvania jumped to a new record high of nearly 29 billion dollars. The average for assessed valuations across the state is 39.8 percent. That state average is lower by four tenths of one percent than the figure for last June.

Determine State Aid
The state board fixed the new market value of all real property assessed for county tax purposes in the state's 2,437 school districts at $28,992,254,990. This compares with $28,104,309,775 on June 30, 1955, and $27,069,504,700 a year earlier.

The board's figures are used as the basis for determining state aid to school districts.

Centre County districts assessed property at the lowest percentage in the state, 19.3 a drop of six-tenths of one per cent from last year.

Clearfield Highest
Clearfield, at one time among the lowest in the state, for the second straight year had the highest assessment percentage, 75.7, or a rise of almost 5 per cent in 12 months.

The percentages for nearby counties include: York, 20.3 per cent; and Franklin, 24.5 per cent.

KOONTZ SERVICES HELD
Funeral services for Herbert N. Koontz, 76, who died at the home of his stepdaughter, Mrs. William R. DeGroff, Taneytown R. 1, on Thursday afternoon following an illness of several days, were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. The Rev. Dr. Miles S. Riefsnyder, pastor of Baust Evangelical and Reformed Church, Carroll County, officiated. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Serving as pallbearers were Charles Gartell, Douglas Johnson, Emmett Shank, Merle Garrett, Herman Arrington and Kenneth Prock.

Elected Teacher In Carlisle System
Mrs. Mary Lou Schwartz, Le Moyne, the former Miss Mary Lou Spangler, R. 4, was elected as a teacher in the Carlisle Area Joint School System at a board meeting last week.

Mrs. Schwartz is a graduate of Gettysburg High School and West Chester State Teachers College. She holds a Master's degree from Columbia University. She also studied at the Peabody Conservatory, Baltimore. She taught at New Oxford, Perth Amboy and for the last seven years in West Chester. Her salary is $4,200.

America must continue "with patience to keep up our guard for the long years ahead until the Communists are ready to furnish adequate guarantees of lasting peace," Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker declared Sunday evening at a program in Gettysburg High School auditorium opening the observance of the 93rd anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg this week. The observance continues with a nightly festival at the Recreation Field and parade Wednesday evening.

Following Secretary Brucker's speech the U. S. Air Force band presented a 90-minute concert that included several numbers by the "Singing Sergeants."

Duty Same As In '63
The Army Secretary told his audience of about 750, "I represent a great army, a magnificent group of men, worthy successors of their fathers and forefathers. This afternoon when I visited the battlefield here I could see the hand-to-hand combat in which our forefathers had to engage. Today we have machine guns and atom bombs and guided missiles. What a difference from the equipment they had just 93 years ago. But still the duty remains the same. The men on the ground have to hold the ground when the challenge comes, whether it is in 1863 or 1956. And while there may be difference in weapons, the basic element remains. It is the man who fights, and an army is as good as the courage and skill of the men who comprise it. I've been all over the world. I have seen our army at outposts in Europe and Korea and our army today is a magnificent group."

He praised Gettysburg because "it translates patriotism into external display—I have never seen so many flags as here."

Burgess Presides
Burgess William G. Weaver served as master of ceremonies for the program with Rev. Edw. E. Korte, college chaplain, giving the invocation and Rev. Fr. Anthony F. Kane, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church here, giving the benediction. Prayers were offered for the speedy recovery of President Eisenhower, who had originally hoped to be present for the program.

Exchange Personal Gifts

The Eisenhowers also exchanged personal gifts. The President gave his wife a heart-shaped medallion. She gave him a gold-framed portrait of herself.

The medallion, which Mrs. Eisenhower wore around her neck, had a calendar of the month of July engraved on it, with the anniversary ruby-studded and the words "Ike to Mamie, 1918-1956."

Eisenhower was reported by press secretary James C. Hagerty to be "feeling fine." He took it easy during the weekend after his auto trip here Saturday from Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington.

Gen. Heaton is the surgeon who performed an abdominal operation on Eisenhower June 9. He and his wife returned to Washington last night. Eisenhower's personal physician, Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, remained here, a few minutes' drive from the farm.

Hershey Services Conducted Today

Largely attended funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the York Springs Lutheran Church for Moses S. Hershey, York Springs merchant and member of the Adams County board of school directors, who died unexpectedly Friday morning in the Warner Hospital.

The Rev. Norman L. Bortner, pastor of the church, officiated. Interment was made in Sunny Side Cemetery at York Springs. The pallbearers were William M. Lott, Paul Lehman, Paul King, Paul Brough, Harvey Lerew and Gilbert McCauslin.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, who ordered an autopsy performed to determine the cause of death, said today the reason for Mr. Hershey's death has not yet been determined and may not be known for another day or two.

One of the best known residents of York Springs where he operated a five and ten-cent store, Mr. Hershey was a member of the school board there and a member of the York Springs Fire Company. He was the first president of the York Springs Lions Club when it was formed in 1938. In addition to survivors listed previously, there are four grandchildren.

Area Civil Defense Meeting Held Here

One of a series of five Civil Defense meetings for the Central Pennsylvania area to prepare for the national alert July 20 was held today in the council room of the fire house. The purpose of the meeting, according to Central Area Director J. Robert Stimmel is to discuss the entire welfare program for the Commonwealth and to coordinate the various services with all other phases of the Civil Defense program. Mr. Stimmel, whose headquarters are in Littlestown, is central director for the Pennsylvania Council of Civil Defense including 26 counties.

Welfare directors and Civil Defense directors from Adams, York, Fulton and Bedford Counties who attended the meeting were: William G. Weaver and Mrs. Pearl Swartz, both of Gettysburg; Harvey Swartz, Mrs. Adair Knox, both of York; Ray Sprinkle, Fulton; Charles Mowery, Mrs. Mary Hunt and Miss Jean I. Heming for Bedford Counties.

$350 Damage Sunday In Two-Car Accident

Two hundred dollars damage to one car and $150 to another vehicle was caused Sunday after an accident on E. Middle and Stratton Streets involving John I. Ohler, 145 Hanover St., and Howard D. Waybright, R. 1. Ohler, who was traveling west on E. Middle St., was struck on the left side by Waybright driving north on Stratton St. Waybright failed to look in both directions, authorities said.

A second accident Sunday resulted in $125 damage to a car owned by Marcus Allen, Annapolis, R. 3, Md., and $100 to an automobile owned by Robert E. Strausbaugh, 240 W. High St. Allen hit Strausbaugh as Allen drove out of Franklin St. onto West High St.

GREENMOUNT SIREN TESTS

Starting this evening and continuing each Monday evening at 7 o'clock, the siren of the Greenmount Fire Co. will be sounded as a test. It will consist of one long blast.

HIT-RUN ACCIDENT

Borough police are seeking a hit and run driver who damaged the left rear fender and hub of a car belonging to Clarence R. Mickey, 352 York St., Sunday morning at 2 a.m. Mickey's car was parked at the time of the accident. The driver continued driving in a westerly direction.

FAIL TO BREAK IN

An attempted break-in at the Taste-Freeze stand on Buford Ave., owned and operated by Lawrence Oyler, will result in a regular night patrol at the stand, according to borough police today. A group of would-be thieves tried to gain entrance to the stand by cutting an outside screen. The lock had been tampered with according to authorities but the person or persons had apparently been frightened away.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—

The government has taken a preliminary step toward revival of stalemate contract talks in the nationwide strike of 650,000 United Steelworkers members. Both the union and the basic steel industry have indicated willingness to return to the bargaining table. But neither side has made any move in that direction, each apparently waiting for the other to make the first overture.

PENNA. CHERRY GROWERS ELECT

Harold Buchholz, North East, was elected president of the Pennsylvania Cherry Growers Association at a meeting Saturday night at Biglerville.

He succeeds William Boyer Lower, Biglerville R. D., for a two-year term; Billy Wilson, Biglerville R. D., was named as vice president; John F. Peters, Gardners R. D., treasurer, and Bert Page, North East, secretary.

The new president showed pictures and slides of this year's Cherry Pie Baking championship contest, and plans were discussed for the 1957 selection of a Pennsylvania cherry pie baking queen. The state contest this February was held at North East and next year's will be held in southeastern Pennsylvania. Vice President Wilson was named to arrange for the state event here, while the president will have the duty of arranging for the various local contests held throughout the state to select the county winners who compete for the state title.

Methods of marketing and orchard management in the North East area were outlined by growers from that section.

The group voted to again assess the 208 members one-tenth of a cent per pound on their cherry crop, with the money to go toward the annual state cherry pie baking contest, advertising and promotion, and the payment of the state growers' share in the National Red Cherry Institute.

Reports at the meeting show that statewide growers. Anticipate a harvest. About 40 per cent of last year's crop.

FIVE INJURED IN

Fairfield firemen were called to stand by with a pumper while the Gorman car was turned over onto its wheels and towed away. Leaking gasoline caused a fire hazard, police said, and as a result the Fairfield firemen were called in case of an explosion when the car was moved. Dr. James H. Hammett, Fairfield, gave first aid to the injured at the scene.

The second accident, in which no one was injured, occurred at 9:15 o'clock Sunday night one-half mile north of here on the Harrisburg Rd. State police said Glenn G. Duey, 49, New Cumberland, was driving south, sought to pass a line of cars and when a truck appeared north bound cut back into his own lane. The right rear bumper of the Duey car struck the left front fender of a car being driven south by Edward Charles Kneller, 22, Heltetown.

Kneller, a member of the U. S. Navy returning to Norfolk from leave, with four other sailors in his car, was forced off the beam and his car struck a guard rail. Damage was estimated at $20 to the Duey car and $100 to the Kneller sedan.

CLUB ASSEMBLY
BY ROTARIANS
TUESDAY NIGHT

A club assembly will be held at the dinner meeting of the Littlestown Rotarians on Tuesday, 6:15 p.m., at Schottie's Hotel. The newly appointed committee chairmen will meet with their committees to plan programs for the coming meetings. The club service committee, composed of A. G. Ealy, chairman, C. Donald Bower, Walter P. Crouse, Stanley B. Stover, Nevaeh A. Crouse, Paul E. King and Dr. Joseph R. Riden, will be in charge.

During the Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church worship service on Sunday morning, the choir sang the anthem "God's Voice" by Blanche Douglas Byles. The pastor, the Rev. G. Howard Koons presented the morning's message. Bernard W. Dutterer, Bernard L. Warner, Melvin L. Spangler and James K. Carbaugh, served as ushers. The pastor announced that 401 individuals received Holy Communion recently. Of this number 15 were visitors, and 27 were private communions.

Announcement was made that the King's Daughters Class is selling picture plates of Christ Church, for $2 each. Mrs. Clyde L. Sterner is receiving orders. Those who ordered pictures of the confirmation class may collect them from Charles A. Grove. Anyone wishing to place their name on the picnic menu bulletin is asked to contact Ralph I. Unger, John N. Sell, Harold E. Shoemaker or Gerald W. Sterner.

Union Vespers
"For Thine Is the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory" was the subject of the sermon delivered by the Rev. William A. Ellsworth Jr., pastor of St. Luke's Evangelical and Reformed Church, near White Hall, and St. James' Evangelical and Reformed Church, along the Harney Rd., at the outdoor union vesper service held on Sunday evening in the Crouse Park pavilion.

The call to worship and invocation were given by the Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ Evangelical and Reformed Church; Scripture reading, the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church; evening prayer, the Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church; offertory prayer, the Rev. Joseph Wood, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church. An anthem was sung by the joint choirs of St. James' and St. Luke's Churches, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Spangler, organist for the evening. The service concluded with the benediction pronounced by the Rev. Charles B. Rebert, retired Reformed minister.

The union service next Sunday at 7 p.m., in the pavilion, will be in charge of the Rev. G. Howard Koons.

Members of the Uniform Rank of the Alpha Fire Company No. 1 will leave the engine house on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. to go to Gettysburg to march in the Fourth of July parade. The marching unit will be accompanied by the Littlestown High School Senior Band. The band will leave from the high school at 5:30 p.m., Wednesday.

Chris Van Cuyk, former Dodger southpaw, is pitching for Chattanooga, Tenn., in the Southern Assn. Last year he had an 8-8 record for Oakland, Calif.

will be moistened by the tears of generations of Americans. Instead of living long purposeless years — they fulfilled their destiny in the few glorious hours they faced the Infinite here. They calmly met the Master in humanity's cause with the gleam of high purpose in their eyes.

"Gettysburg is not just a spot on the map, it is a place in the heart of every American. Gettysburg will be remembered not only as the site of the supreme battle of the Civil War, but also for Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. As long as humanity hungers for freedom anywhere in the world, the Gettysburg Address will continue to inspire the hearts of men. The challenging and timeless words of that towering leader transcended the carnage of war and elevated the horizons of future generations to new aspirations in the eternal quest for human freedom.

Freedom Most Precious
"Lincoln gave urgency and perspective to the renewal of faith in self-government and faith in ourselves. He gave high purpose to the shouldering of responsibilities by us as free men in order to make our heritage secure. The question Lincoln asked here at Gettysburg — whether 'any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure' — must be answered anew by every succeeding generation.

"How long do you think will it take us to learn that freedom is our most precious possession? It can belong only to those who are willing to defend it at any cost, not only upon a battlefield, but in the monotony of every day life. Freedom is not a prize that can be won and securely locked away as a permanent possession. It is a living thing that must be constantly nurtured and protected. Freedom will continue to bless the United States only so long as it is vigorously cherished and zealously defended.

Congratulates Gettysburg
"We've said too much in the abstract in the last few years. We've failed to get down to cases. We've got to translate these ideas of ours into the lives not only of ourselves but of these children coming along. As an example, when I was seven years old I was told to turn out for Memorial Day. I didn't know what it was, but I had heard my parents speak of it in reverent tones. There were still then the Boys in Blue. They were old men, but they were still to everyone the Boys in Blue. They took us kids aside and said 'are you good Americans?' We said we were and then, and only then, they gave us the flag and said 'put it on your right shoulder and follow me' and since then I have followed them. They had given me a vision of something far bigger than myself. And they had given the true leaders' command 'follow me.'

"If we can only translate our ideas into our boys and girls doing some patriotic act. Congratulations to you Burgess Weaver and to the people of Gettysburg. You deserve a high mark for patriotism and for translating patriotism into everyday acts. I don't think I have ever seen so many flags as I have seen here in Gettysburg today.

"So many towns are smug today. They don't even put out the flag. There are so many towns where they don't translate into outward and exterior show their patriotism. These are little things, but how mightily they count.

"When someone begins belittling

Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Members of the Elks lodge will meet at the Elks' home at 7 p.m. Tuesday to go to the funeral home.

Ike And Mamie Arrive At Farm

President and Mrs. Eisenhower, beaming happily are shown arriving at their Gettysburg farm a few minutes after 11 o'clock Saturday morning. They made the motor trip from Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, in approximately two hours. After a restful weekend the President plunged into official duties this morning.

the United States, there are those who remain silent. I'm tired of the fellow who won't stand up for a friend or a cause. I like to see a man who is reserved, but can step up and say I stand for this, and then tell what he stands for, rather than let friend or cause suffer by cringing expediency.

"America will stay America as long as we observe those external signs — when we carry the flag, and take our hats off when the flag goes by and hold our hats over our hearts, when we display a robust Americanism.

"Self-government is always an unfinished work. It is not like a granite statue that is completed when the sculptor has smoothed away the last rough spot. Rather, it is like a ship that needs the constant vigil of every member of the crew to keep it in repair and moving steadily forward on its true course—weathering the rough buffeting of every storm, wind, and wave. We cannot take self-government for granted simply because we have had it for 180 years. While we derive inspiration from splendid deeds we must keep on translating that inspiration into magnificent new achievements if we dare to hope for survival!

"We Dare To Hope"
"In Lincoln's day he applied that old Biblical admonition: 'A house divided against itself cannot stand.' Singularly enough, that same problem confronts us today. The world is divided by the Iron Curtain. On the far side there are ruthless regimentation, secret police and the slave camps of Siberia that debase humanity. On our side there is free government, where individual liberty, freedom of speech, freedom of religion and free enterprise thrive. Can peace come to a world where two such diametrically opposed ideologies continue to exist?

"No amount of wishful thinking can blur from our vision the picture of a world divided against itself. Unless individual liberty is allowed to prevail, the malignant ideology of communism will continue to divide us. We dare to hope for the day when the communists will roll up the Iron Curtain and permit freedom of speech and the other freedoms to prevail. If the Free World can exercise sufficient patience, events may hasten that day. Oh, if they but had a free press where truth could prevail. Education and a consequent desire on the part of the Russian people for the unvarnished facts may prevail against the might of their dictators. I believe time is on our side.

Must Keep Guard Up
"Today we have 1,050,000 men in the Army, 900,000 in the Air Force, 800,000 in the Navy and Marine Corps.

"The question arises — how long must we spend our substance and require the training of our young men for the defense of our country? As long as this menace threatens our national existence we would be foolhardy to follow any other course than thorough and complete preparedness and a ready military force of great strength.

"We must continue with patience to keep up our guard for the long demonstrated that it will never be the aggressor in any military action. We have asked the Communists to join in outlawing any surprise attack by mutual agreement for open sky inspection' available to each side. Our nation has demonstrated its willingness to proceed upon a mutual basis toward disarmament. If the Communists will simply agree to join us in taking this first step. The whole world, including the Communists, knows of our sincerity. Nevertheless permanent peace is still a deferred dream and we are compelled to maintain a strong military shield, year after year as insurance against annihilation. The only thing either side need fear is a surprise attack. We are not going to attack. So the question arises — What of the other fellow, why doesn't he agree?

"This nation was built on daring and hardship, on tragedy and heartbreak, on the courage and endurance of innumerable men and women whose names never got into the history books, but who left us forever in their debt. The priceless ingredient of character, that has distinguished our people from others through the centuries who won freedom and then let it slip away through listless fingers, can be called by no better name than uncompromising Americanism. That's what inspired our pioneers when they created a mighty nation out of a trackless wilderness. That's what brought our great free institutions to full flower. It has been our shining armor against every militant threat and every demoralizing influence through all the years. Insofar as we have faithfully followed the blueprint of uncompromising Americanism we have always prevailed.

Need Americanism
"Today, as never before, we need this uncompromising Americanism invigorating every fiber of the living body of this nation. We need the faith that moves mountains. We need the sturdy spirit that faces every job with the watchword: 'It can be done!' and then proceeds to do it. We need vigorous participants in government, not mere spectators. We need sturdy builders, not destructive critics. We need to rise up and be counted for what we believe to be right, no matter what the cost. We need people who will stick their chins out now and again for our country. We need people who will take the hard road when it counts for America. We need citizens who will not compromise the principles of honor and justice.

"When we look about us, how could we fail to be devoutly thankful for what we have in America, and confident in our own strength? 'Why should we spend as much time as we do worrying about the power of the regimented Soviet Union, and so little thinking about the priceless advantages that are ours under our American system of free enterprise and individual responsibility? What do the Soviets see when they look at America?

America In Forefront
"They see a tremendously mighty nation which derives its strength from a free people, a nation with a dynamic economy that is a long, long way ahead of theirs. They see a nation which has the 'know how' required to make the most effective use of every scientific discovery. They see people joined for nearly two centuries in a spirit of unified endeavor, working with all their real toward the achievement of a common purpose because they believe in it — not because a dictator stands over them with a lash of terror nor because they fear the knock of the OGPU, the secret police. They see a people of indomitable courage who have risen nobly to every crisis, who have never succumbed to the thought of defeat even in the face of war running in full flood against them. They see a nation which is a vital part of the greatest defensive alliance ever created, an alliance which has more military power — more power of every kind — than the whole communist world. They see a nation that has the resources — physical, spiritual and psychological — to keep far ahead of any Soviet advance. Americans have their differences and difficulties. These do not diminish our strength nor erode our spirit. They do not fester in secret and explode into bloody slaughter as do differences of opinion behind the Iron Curtain. For every difficulty we have, the Soviets have a hundredfold. So don't weary

Lead fouling is like a leaky gas tank

If your gas tank looked like this, you'd get it repaired mighty fast. But when lead fouling does its dirty work under your car's hood you're wasting gas . . . just as if the tank leaked.

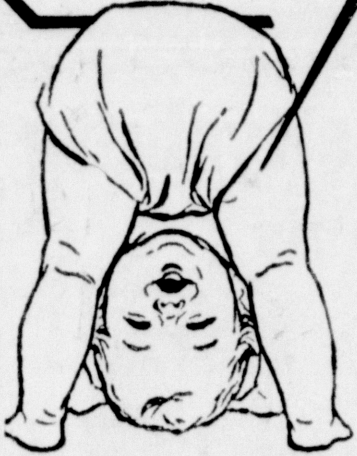

Lead fouling is caused by lead deposits that form on pistons, valves and plugs. And lead deposits come from only one thing, gasoline with tetraethyl lead in it. That's true of any leaded gasoline regardless of its fancy color, fancy pump or fancy name. What's more, no additive in the world can remove these fouling deposits, once they form.

One gas . . . just one . . . contains no lead, can never leave a lead deposit. That's Amoco-Gas, the only gas that's all gas. It can all burn, it's all power. 100% POWER! And it guarantees no lead fouling with all the anti-knock power that any car can use. See the difference for yourself when you buy it . . . Amoco-Gas is clear white. See the difference when you use it . . . a mileage record you can brag about!

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
Gettysburg: The Rev. Mr. Van Wyck has accepted the call from the Presbyterian congregation of this place, and will enter upon his pastoral duties about the last of the present month, or beginning of August.

We are requested to announce that the Rev. David Sterritt will preach in the Lower Marsh Creek Church on the second, and the Rev. Mr. Werner on the third Sabbath in July, at the usual hours, 11 o'clock, A.M.

State Tax: On Friday last, J. L. Schick, Esq., our county treasurer, paid into the state treasury, the full amount of our quota of state tax, for 1856.

Sunday, June 29, was decidedly the hottest of the season. In nearly all the cities the mercury was 95 to 100, in the shade. In this place, it was 98. In the state house elevation, at Philadelphia, at an elevation of 100 feet, the mercury rose to 95.

The Eightieth Anniversary of American Independence was ushered in, on Friday morning last, by the ringing of bells, firing of cannon, and the usual accompaniments on such an occasion, when "Young America" felt disposed to indulge in the "largest liberty."

There were a number of picnics, at which those participating, we understand, had much enjoyment. The principal celebration was by the "Independent Blues," and a number of citizens, near the tavern of Mr. Bream, on Marsh creek. Hon. Moses McClean delivered an oration; and toasts, as customary, were drunk. The "Blues" returned to town about 7 o'clock, and after parading the streets for a short time, were dismissed, and our town, by 10 o'clock, had resumed its accustomed quiet, in comfortable contrast with the previous night.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Assassination! An Attempt On The President's Life: President Garfield was shot on Saturday in the waiting-room of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Depot, just after his arrival to take the train for New York in company with several members of the Cabinet. The assassin was an apparently half-crazed office-seeker named Charles J. Guiteau, known in Chicago and Washington as a worthless character. Two shots were fired, one taking effect in the President's shoulder, the other making a dangerous wound in the groin. The assassin was arrested and removed under strong guard for fear of lynching.

Commencement Week: In our last issue we gave reports of the closing exercises of the College and Seminary as far as they had transpired. A brief notice of the remaining exercises is necessary to complete the record.

The address to the Seminary alumni on Tuesday night by Rev. T. C. Billheimer, of Reading, was a carefully prepared and thoughtful discussion of the value of modern skepticism to Christianity, which was highly spoken of.

The Junior exhibition came off Thursday morning, as per programme published last week. At 3 p.m. Hon. Henry W. Hoffman, of Cumberland, Md., delivered the address before the literary societies of the college. His subject was "John Adams," the second President of the United States.

At 8 p.m., J. Hay Brown, Esq., of Lancaster, addressed the College alumni, his theme being "The Coming Politician."

Hon. Edward McPherson presided at the alumni meeting held after Mr. Brown's address. The old officers were re-elected.

The exercises of the graduating class came off Thursday morning, as per programme published last week. The Junior Latin Prize was assigned to Wm. C. Sheely, of Gettysburg, with honorable mention of Frank E. Colvin, of Schellburg, and George D. Gotwald, of York.

The Seminary Board of Directors on Tuesday was largely attended. Rev. C. S. Albert, of Carlisle, was

Today's Talk

INTERESTS
How many times I have talked about interests and how important they are in keeping us all in a healthy, balanced state of mind! And by interests I mean largely hobbies that have no direct relation to one's chosen life work.

It isn't work that kills, but worry and a lack of those interests that bring new joy and a renewal of hope and enthusiasm. A collector of antiques, rare books and works of art is usually a very happy and efficient worker. What he gets out of the discovery of an item which he has spent perhaps years trying to locate!

I once knew a great American publisher who collected art and rare Americana. He always had a fine assortment of each, most of which he habitually presented to many institutions. He was an inspiring friend. When he died he left provision in his will for hundred-dollar checks to go to about a hundred of his intimate friends, with which they were asked to buy some article "in memoriam."

The greater part of my life has been devoted to many an interest that had no bearing whatsoever on the selection of my life work. (Primarily I am just a newspaper man.) I have found that this has been a valuable idea that has brought me in touch with people I might never have met or known. I have even been a modest stamp collector! And this hobby, as well as my love for books and art, has given me many a period of mental peace. Stamps are a wonderful educational hobby for young people. There are books of information on the postage stamps of the world.

Thousands of men have made gardening a hobby—and a most happy and profitable one it is. Herb Shriner is fascinated with gadgets, and they are tucked away for test and trial all over his home. I think that they must be a kind of "off day" study and recreation.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject, "Feed the Birds!" Proposed, 1956, by The George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

TODAY'S FASHIONS
Time was, lady, you were trim;
Gracefully you tripped the street.
You'd figure straight and slim.
And you scarcely showed your feet.

You were beautiful to see.
You were garbed in modest taste.
Then you captivated me;
I knew where to find your waist.

Now you hump your shoulders down;
Now your back describes an arch.
Like a slouch about the town.
And you slouch a question mark.

Lady, as I see you go
Plodding up and down the street,
Oft I wonder do you know
Just what ugly things are feet?

SAYS SUPPORT HINDERED RISING AGAINST STALIN

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union's Communist chiefs said today it was Joseph Stalin's support from the Russian people that kept them from rising against him—not lack of courage.

The Central Committee of the Soviet Communist party issued a 6,000-word statement to explain why the country's present rulers waited until after Stalin was dead to denounce him.

It said Stalin was so popular after World War II that the Soviet people would neither have understood nor supported any move against him.

It also asserted that threat of "capitalist encirclement" was another reason the present leadership could not have risked disunity by ousting Stalin. Moreover, it added, the dictator's worst crimes were not revealed until after his death.

The statement, drafted as a resolution of the Central Committee, was spread over two pages of Pravda, the party's newspaper, and beamed abroad by Moscow radio.

It clearly was intended as a reply to critics of the Kremlin's anti-Stalin campaign both inside and outside the Soviet Union.

Criticize Methods
Leaders of Communist parties in Western Europe and the United States have criticized Moscow's methods in the downgrading of Stalin. They also have asked what was the role of the present Soviet leadership during the years Stalin was committing the crimes of which he is now accused.

The long resolution reviewed what it described as the historical background and causes of Stalin's rise to supreme power. It said the drive to correct his errors had been misinterpreted by foreign Communist leaders. It attacked "wonderous assertions" in the West that Stalin's dictatorship had been made possible by the underdeveloped nature of the Soviet system and claimed Soviet society is basically unchanged despite Stalin's influence.

Any action against Stalin during his lifetime "would not have been understood by the people," the resolution said. It continued: "All this does not mean there was lack of personal courage. It is clear anyone who would have spoken up against Stalin under those conditions would not have been supported by the people."

"Moreover, any such action would have been considered... as a move to undermine the unity of the party and government."

The resolution asserted that Stalinism has been uprooted completely and the collective leadership of both the Soviet party and government now are guaranteed.

The resolution bitterly attacked "American monopoly capitalism" for "continuing to allot large sums of money to increase subversive activity against Socialist countries." It claimed last week's anti-Communist uprising in Poznan, Poland, was financed by "adherents of the cold war" in the United States.

Blue Ridge Summit hiked its lead in the Pen-Mar Baseball League to many innings by pounding out a 14-4 victory over New Windsor while second-place Cashtown dropped an 8-6 decision to Emmitsburg Sunday afternoon.

Cashtown took a 3-0 lead over invading Emmitsburg via a pair of runs in the first inning and another in the third but the roof caved in when Emmitsburg scored five times in the top of the sixth after one came out. The Emmitsburg tallies came on a single by Saylor, walk to D. Joy, singles by M. Joy and Dolly, a sacrifice by Boyle and safeties by Wisner and Sterbinsky.

Fairfield scored four times in the last of the eighth inning to break a 5-5 deadlock in topping New Oxford 9-5.

The winners collected 10 hits with L. Sites, Johnson and J. Deardoff each rapping a pair. Deardoff led the losers with a single and triple.

Home-run Thriller
By far the best and perhaps most thrilling game of the season took place at Union Bridge where the home team nipped Taneytown 3-2 in a 14-inning affair.

Taneytown tallied a run in the second when Wayne Baumgardner homered. In the last of the fourth Union Bridge knotted the score on a circuit drive by Shaffer. Another run in the top of the fifth gave Taneytown a 2-1 lead. Bollinger walked, stole second and went to third on a fielder's choice. He raced home of Blizard's fly to center.

With two out in the bottom of the ninth Fred Shank rattomed the homerun for Union Bridge to send the game into overtime. Weaver relieved Blizard on the mound for Taneytown in the 14th. L. Duppins doubled and Shank was purposely passed. Pres Duppins then unloaded a double to score L. Duppins and bring the long game to an end.

13 FIREMEN ARE HURT IN LEMOYNE LUMBER BLAZE

HARRISBURG (AP)—A general alarm fire, rushing through a lumber yard in nearby Lemoyne last night, caused damage estimated by the owners at $225,000 and injured 13 firemen.

Lemoyne Fire Chief E. R. Fair said the blaze was "presumably started by sparks from a steam locomotive."

Nine firemen were overcome by smoke and four others suffered cuts while fighting the blaze. All were treated at Harrisburg Hospital and discharged.

The blaze destroyed three box cars, two loaded with lumber, on a Pennsylvania Railroad siding near the yard and held up freight train traffic on the branch line for several hours.

Nine West Shore companies responded to the alarm. They were hampered by thick, black smoke which rose several hundred feet into the air and was visible for at least five miles.

Laverne Otto, partner in the Otto and Hollinger Lumber Yard, Inc., made the estimate of damage and said lumber, doors, insulation, five one-story concrete buildings and other supplies were destroyed.

6 Trucks Removed

Among firemen injured was Robert Fair, assistant chief of the nearby West Fairview company. He was overcome by smoke.

Lumber yard employees managed to drive six trucks to safety before the entire yard was engulfed by flames.

Lemoyne is one of the largest communities on the West Bank of the Susquehanna across the river from Harrisburg.

Firemen were still on the scene early this morning wetting down debris to guard against further outbreak.

Shower Of Home Runs Shoves Redlegs Close To Loop Lead As They Beat Cards Two Times

By JACK HAND
The Associated Press

Critics of the All-Star voting are quiet today after Cincinnati's home run shower at St. Louis. Instead of five Redleg starters, maybe the National League should go with the whole team.

With 107 home runs in 67 ball games, this could be the greatest slugging team in history. At the rate they're going, Cincy should hit about 245 homers. The New York Giants of 1947 still hold the record with 221.

The Redlegs edged within five percentage points of the league lead yesterday by ripping St. Louis twice 19-15 in 10 innings and 7-1. Milwaukee lost its full-game advantage by splitting a pair with Chicago, the Braves rallying from a 7-0 shutout by Don Kaiser to grab the second 4-3 behind Ray Crone and Lew Burdette.

Phils, Brooks Split
Brooklyn remained a full game back by beating Philadelphia 4-1 on Gil Hodges' two-run homer and Roger Craig's five-hit pitching after the Phils slugged Sal Maglie and Clem Labine for five in the ninth to win the opener 7-4. The New York Giants' Johnny Antonelli shaded Pittsburgh's Bob Friend 3-2 and New York also led 7-6 in the second game that was suspended until Aug. 10 when it was called by the Sunday curfew after eight innings.

In the American, Mickey Mantle got back on the beam after going 11 games since June 20 without a home run. He slammed No. 28 into the third deck in left field, batting right-handed, and hit No. 29 into the right field bullpen, batting lefty, in the New York Yankees' second game 8-6 victory over Washington. Joe Collins' two-run homer won the opener for the Yanks 3-2 although the league leaders had only three hits to 12 by Washington off Whitey Ford.

Mantle now is eight games ahead of Babe Ruth's 1927 pace when he hit his 28th and 29th in game No. 79. This was Mantle's 71st game.

Double Win For Yanks
The Yanks' double triumph boosted their lead to four full games because Cleveland knocked off second-place Chicago in two games 7-6 and 6-1. Chico Carrasquel's ninth-inning single climaxed a three-run spurt in the first and Bob Lemon won his 10th with the help of his own two-run homer in the second.

Despite home runs by Ted Williams and loser Bob Porterfield, Baltimore topped the Boston Red Sox 5-3 behind Connie Johnson. A homer by Dick Williams, an ex-Dodger, with a man on was the winner. Kansas City rallied with three in the sixth inning to rob Detroit of a series sweep 4-3.

One of the wildest games of this season — or any season — saw Cincinnati score six in the 10th to overcome the Cardinals in the first game of their double. A total of 34 runs, eight homers and 43 base hits were collected off 14 pitchers.

Three For Ted
Brooks Lawrence, unbeaten in 10, was long gone when the victory finally was credited to Hal Jeffcoat. Jim Konstanty, who took over after St. Louis rallied to tie the score with six in the ninth, took the rap for all six 10th-inning runs.

Ted Kluszewski hit three homers, the third in the 10th with one on, and Frank Robinson and George Crowe also homered for Cincy in the first game. Smoky Burgess and Gus Bell hit theirs in the second game. For St. Louis, Stan Musial hit two and Rip Repulski and Wally Moon (a grand slammer) hit one each.

Bonus pitcher Kaiser, a 21-year-old Cub right-hander, pitched his first big league shutout, a six-hitter, in the first game, with the help of Ernie Banks' 19th and 20th home runs. Crone needed relief league-leading Milwaukee Braves on six hits 7-0 in first game of doubleheader.

Bendersville's lead over second-place Mummasburg in the South Penn Baseball League was pared to a game Sunday as the race between the first division teams tightened considerably. Bendersville and Mummasburg clash Wednesday afternoon on the latter's field.

Bill Heyser, star Hunterstown right-hander, bested Dick Pitzer, Bendersville, 3-1 in a mound duel at Hunterstown Sunday. Heyser whiffed 11 and yielded six hits. Pitzer fanned nine and gave up seven safeties. Fine defensive work helped Heyser in his triumph, the feature being Johnny King's one-handed back-hand stop in the ninth and toss to first base to retire the batsman. Two runners were aboard at the time when King smothered the hit-bound drive.

Mummasburg narrowed the league-leaders' lead by topping Greenmount 7-5 on the latter's field. Bonneauville went into a tie for fifth place with Brushtown by handing winless Harney its 11th straight reverse at Bonneauville 5-3. Tom Gardner and Chisler formed the winning battery while Dougherty and Crouse performed for Harney.

Hazleton Woman Is State Golf Titlist

READING, Pa. (P)—Pennsylvania's new women's amateur golf champion is Mrs. John Dyson of the Valley Country Club, Hazleton.

She edged medalist Maureen Riley of New Castle one-up at the Reading Country Club Saturday to wind up the four-day tourney. It was Mrs. Dyson's first state championship in 10 attempts. Mrs. Dyson dropped a six foot putt for a par four on the 31st hole. She never trailed and led by as much as 3-up several times. Mrs. Dyson, 37, is vice president of the Pennsylvania State Women's Golf Assn.

RATHSCHMIDT TO COACH U. S. OLYMPIC CREW

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (P)—A gray-haired, red-checked ex-boat rigger who never went to college was given the job today of leading the United States' "greatest rowing force of all-time" to Melbourne for the Olympic Games.

He is big Jim Rathschmidt, who coached the powerful Yale University eight which upset favored Cornell and the Navy Admirals yesterday in the thrilling five-boat finals of the U.S. trials.

Rathschmidt, a fortyish man of German descent who learned about boats as a boy around his uncle's shop, automatically became head coach of the 26-member crew contingent-plus five reserves, which will row against the world at Ballarat, Australia, starting Nov. 28.

Ellis Beat Cornell
Yesterday on Lake Onondaga the Ellis, a rather crazy-quilt mixture of sophs, juniors and seniors with no two men the same height, proved their coach a prophet by scoring a three-quarter length victory over Cornell, with Navy, Washington, and Wisconsin following in that order. Two boat lengths could have blanketed the close finish.

Yale's dramatic victory in the eight shared the Olympic trials spotlight with an impressive triumph for Jack Kelly Jr. of Philadelphia in the single sculls and the sweeping win of a duo of servicemen in the pairs without coxswain.

In the latter event, the Olympic veteran tandem of Marine Duval Hecht and Navy Lieutenant James Flier upset the 1952 Olympic champions, Chuck Logg Jr. and Tom Price of Rutgers. Hecht and Flier competed as pairs with coxswain (Jim Beggs) at Helsinki but lost in the semifinals.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

WIMBLEDON, England — Vic Seixas and Ham Richardson entered the quarter finals of the Wimbledon Tennis championships.

STENGEL PICKS COMPLETE TEAM OF ALL-STARS

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (P)—Six right-handers and two blue ribbon southpaws were tabbed American League pitchers for the July 10 All-Star Game today by Manager Casey Stengel as he completed his 25-man squad.

Building around the eight regular starters named in fan voting, Stengel wound up with six players from his own New York Yankees, topping the Boston Red Sox by one, Detroit and Chicago each placed four, Cleveland and Kansas City two apiece, and Baltimore and Washington one each.

The two lefties are Chicago's Billy Pierce, the AL's winningest hurler with a 14-2 mark, and Stengel's own Whitey Ford (9-4).

The Right Handers

Right-handers included Jim Wilson of the White Sox (10-4), Tom Brewer (10-3) and Frank Sullivan (7-4) of the Red Sox, Early Wynn (8-4) and Ray Narleski (2-2) of the Indians and Johnny Kucks of the Yankees (10-4).

Stengel is seeking his first All-Star triumph in six tries against the National League's best. In naming first sackers Vic Power of Kansas City and Roy Sievers of Washington, behind certified Mickey Vernon of the Red Sox, he overlooked Cleveland's Vic Wertz and his own Bill Skowron, who finished Nos. 2 and 3 in the fan balloting.

Four From Yanks

Right fielder Harry Simpson, Kansas City's RBI artist, got the call over New York's Hank Bauer and Boston's Jackie Jensen, who ranked in that order in the poll behind Detroit's Al Kaline.

From the Yankees, Stengel took shortstop Gil McDougald and second baseman Billy Martin, as well as pitchers Ford and Kucks, to join center fielder Mickey Mantle and catcher Yogi Berra, the people's choices, on the All-Star squad.

Nellie Fox of the White Sox will start at second base and Harvey Kuenn of Detroit at shortstop.

Some From Boston

Boston's All-Star quintet, besides Ted Williams and Vernon, respective starters at left field and first base, and pitchers Sullivan and Brewer, also included center fielder Jim Piersall.

Besides Detroit's two starters, right fielder Kaline and shortstop Kuenn, Stengel picked third baseman Ray Boone and left fielder Charley Maxwell from the Tigers.

The White Sox quartet includes second base starter Fox, pitchers Pierce and Wilson and catcher Sherm Lollar.

Stengel named Charley Dressen of the host Washington club and Yankee Jim Turner as coaches.

Palmer Wins With Borrowed Putter

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (P)—Thanks to the putter he borrowed from Ted Kroll of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., won the $30,000 Insurance City Open golf tournament yesterday in a playoff against Kroll himself.

Both finished the 72-hole event with 274's, but Palmer shot two birdies in a row to win in the playoff.

Putting did the trick. He and Kroll birdied the first hole, with Kroll dropping an 8-foot putt and Palmer a 4-footer.

MICELI-HARPER FIGHT ON 4TH

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Boxing fans who used to get such as Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard for their July 4th fare will settle for Joe Miceli and Maurice Harper from the Oakland, Calif. Auditorium for their holiday fight Wednesday night.

Miceli, a hot-and-cold fighter from New York with a knockout punch in his left hand, is ranked No. 7 among the welters although he has lost two of three starts this year. His overall record for 80 fights is 48-25-7.

Harper, inactive since last August, has a 26-3 record for 29 pro fights. He hasn't lost since Dec. 12, 1951.

The 10-round match will be carried on network (ABC) radio and television.

Giardello Tonight

Joey Giardello, once a high ranking Philadelphia middleweight, will try to crack his two-fight New York losing streak tonight when he takes on rough Tony Baldoni of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. at St. Nicholas Arena.

Giardello lost twice to Charlie Cotton at St. Nick's. Baldoni, a willing but crude workman, figures to be a fine match for Joey's counter punching.

On Friday Card

Joey Lopes of Sacramento, Calif. and Paolo Rost of Italy, two experienced lightweight, meet Friday at Madison Square Garden in the weekly radio-TV (NBC) show.

8 REDLEGS ON ALSTON'S TEAM FOR JULY 10TH

CINCINNATI (P)—Walter Alston, manager of the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers, today filled out the roster of the 1956 National League All-Star team and although he picked players from every squad in the league, the team took on more of a Cincinnati tinge.

Alston, who will manage the All-Stars, picked three more Redlegs to go with five others who already had been selected as starters in a vote of fans. He named four of his own Dodgers and four members of the Milwaukee Braves to the 25-man squad.

He selected four right-handed pitchers and three southpaws for the annual All-Star Game with the American League at Washington July 10.

The righties will be Clem Labine of Brooklyn, Brooks Lawrence of Cincinnati, Bob Friend of Pittsburgh and Robin Roberts of Philadelphia.

The southpaws will be Johnny Antonelli of New York, Joe Nuxhall of Cincinnati and Warren Spahn of Milwaukee.

Labine (6-2), Lawrence (10-0), and Friend (11-5) are the only hurlers with good won-lost records this year.

The eight starters, aside from the pitchers, who must play three innings bearing injury, will be Ed Bailey, Cincinnati, catcher; Dale Long, Pittsburgh, first base; Johnny Temple, Cincinnati, second base; Roy McMillan, Cincinnati, shortstop; Ken Boyer, St. Louis, third base; Frank Robinson, Cincinnati, left field; Gus Bell, Cincinnati, center field; and Stan Musial, St. Louis, right field.

To back up Bailey, Alston named the Dodgers' Roy Campanella and Del Crandall of the Braves, catchers.

Other infielders selected were Ernie Banks, Chicago; Junior Gilliam, Brooklyn; Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati; and Eddie Mathews, Milwaukee.

As reserve outfielders, Alston named Sam Aaron, Milwaukee; Willie Mays, New York; Rip Repulski, St. Louis; and Duke Snider, Brooklyn.

In addition, Alston named Managers Birdie Tebbetts of Cincinnati and Fred Hutchinson of St. Louis as his coaches.

for 48 starts. Rost, who beat Sal DiGuadia in his only 1955 start, has a 21-3 record. Each lightweight is 28.

LOS ANGELES (P)—"These boys will do a little better than they know how at Melbourne."

That was Jim Kelly, U.S. Olympic track and field coach, speaking immediately after watching his team take shape with record-shattering performances in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

When next they gather, about Oct. 15, it will be for the trip to Australia and the 1956 Olympics.

Record Breakers

World record breakers were Charley Dumas of Compton, Calif. with 7 feet ½ inch in the high jump; Lou Jones of the Army with a time of 45.2 seconds in the 400-meter dash, and Ohio State's Glenn Davis, timed at 49.5 in the 400-meter hurdles in only his sixth competitive effort in the event.

No less than three sprinters equalled the 10.2 standard for 100 meters, Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian, Ira Murchison of the Army, and Thane Baker of the Air Force. The record tying times came in preliminaries. Morrow than won the final with Murchison and Baker finishing in that order behind him.

Speed king Morrow, winner of major races on four consecutive weekends, came back to cop the 200 in 20.6, equalling the American record for the event in which there is no recognized world mark. He was the only double winner in the trials.

Sets U. S. Record
Tom Courtney established an American record of 1:46.4 in beating Pittsburgh's Arnie Sowell in the 800 and Oregon's Bill Dellinger set another with 1:26 in the 5,000-meter run.

Ira Davis of LaSalle University established a meet and American Citizens' record in the hop, step and jump with a leap of 51 feet 4½ inches. The American record of 51-7 was set in this country by Japan's Chuhel Nambu in 1932.

Other meet records were Parry O'Brien's shot put of 60 feet 10 inches; Al Hall's hammer throw of

AMERICAN REDS "PHONOGRAPH RECORDS" FOR RUSS LEADERS

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — This is a journey into the minds of America's Communist leaders who over the past three decades exacted trust and blind obedience from the thousands of men and women who joined the party.

How good was that leadership? And how honest has it been, then and now, with those thousands who, putting their future in the hands of these men, assumed they knew what they were doing and could be believed? These questions can be asked fairly now because, under Russian prodding to all Communists to be "critical and self-critical," the American leaders and members are discussing and admitting mistakes.

... Fantasy—Not Facts ... This is the most charitable judgment — if their admissions are to be believed — that can be made: they did not deal in facts but in fantasy and were Russian phonograph records spinning in a dream world.

They backed and justified every action of Stalin while denouncing and opposing every American government policy which, particularly since World War II, was in conflict with Stalin's interests or desires.

The American leaders admit now, but only after the Russians' frank exposures, that they were wrong in never recognizing or protesting Stalin's tyranny or misdeeds.

Some Damaging Mistakes
And the leadership admits that in these past 10 years here at home the party suffered damaging losses and committed disastrous mistakes.

For example, it admits: it did not understand America; it must begin studying it; it cut its own membership too drastically; it sought to stir conflict between poor and middle-class Negroes joining forces behind what they wanted — desegregation; the party lost through its tactics any influence it had in the mainstream of American labor; three times since 1945 it expected depressions and war; and its attempt to form a third political party ended in farce.

The test of the wisdom and honesty of the American leadership depends not only on whether they were right or wrong, but why.

One Simple Test
One simple test can be applied: American Communists call themselves scientific Marxists. Therefore they must be judged by a basic scientific standard: Did they deal in facts? The answer is no. It is admitted by Eugene Dennis, the party's No. 1 man.

He says "we sometimes tended to take positions on certain questions without first-hand knowledge of the facts" and based party thinking "on a one-sided estimate" of political, social and economic "data and factors."

But from now on, he says, the party must deal with "facts factually." But how can the American leaders explain their long years of unwavering devotion to Stalin, waiting until the Russians exposed him before admitting their error?

Not So New

The American leadership, Dennis says, considered Stalin "infallible" and the Russian revelations about Stalin were "new to us and ... a shock."

But the disclosures could hardly be that new. For more than 20 years newspapers and governments called Stalin's tyranny and crimes by those names. Didn't the American Communists pay attention, have any doubts?

No, Dennis says, because the American leaders ignored as "slander" anything that told of "injustices" in Russia.

These were the leaders whom thousands of Americans — some brilliant, some sick, some starry-eyed — trusted, believing them and obeying them when they said they knew the road to a brave, new world.

REV. SEIWELL GOING TO CAMP

"The Traveler's Psalm" was the subject of the sermon delivered by the Rev. Porter W. Seiwell at the worship service on Sunday morning in Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed Church. A quartet, composed of the Misses Eileen Crouse, Grizelda Hahn, Donna Koontz and Sandra Hawk, sang "Lo, A Voice To Heaven Sounding." Bortniansky. The quartet was accompanied by Mrs. George A. Stoner, organist. During the worship there was a commissioning service for Miss Gloria Burgoon, a member of the congregation, who was chosen by the Youth Fellowship of the Mercersburg Synod to be a delegate to the National Youth Council next month at Catawba College, Salisbury, N. C. The altar flowers were placed by the Ever Faithful Bible Class in memory of the Rev. Dr. Albert O. Bartholomew. The bulletins were given by Dr. and Mrs. Richard M. Phreaner in memory of her parents.

The Rev. Mr. Seiwell will be at Camp Michaux, near Pine Grove Furnace, this week as key leader for the Senior High Camp. In case he is needed, call Mt. Holly Springs 904-R-5.

Redeemer's Senior Choir will not rehearse this week. The next rehearsal has been scheduled for Thursday, July 12, 7:30 p.m. The members of the choir have been invited to the Higginbotham Cottage, Marsh Creek Heights, on Wednesday, July 11.

Weddings

Collins—Trivitt
Miss Marie Isabel Trivitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira M. Trivitt, Hanover R. 1, and James Richard Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Collins, Littlestown, were married Saturday afternoon at the rectory of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, Littlestown. The Rev. William Boyle performed the ceremony. A reception for 75 guests was held following the ceremony at the Kingsdale fire hall.

The bride was attired in a ballerina length white gown. Her nose tip veil was attached to a small white hat and she carried a bouquet of red and white rosebuds.

Miss Audrey Bowers, Taneytown, maid of honor, wore a powder blue ballerina length gown with a matching hat, and she carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Miss Sally Henler, Baltimore, a bridesmaid, wore a similar dress of yellow, a matching hat, and she carried a mixed bouquet.

Leo Harper, Littlestown, was the best man. Gregory Sanders, Littlestown, was an usher.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins left after the reception for a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. For the trip Mrs. Collins dressed in red polka dotted nylon sheath covered by a lightweight white duster. She wore white accessories and a red and white rosebud corsage.

When they return from the trip, the Collinses will live at 423 S. Queen St., Littlestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins both attended the Littlestown High School and are employed by the Carroll Shoe Company. Mr. Collins served for 30 months in Germany when he was a member of the United States Army.

Kuhn—Warner
Miss Shirley June Warner, daughter of Mrs. Helen E. Warner, 126 Lumber St., Littlestown, and the late Raymond W. Warner, and Kenneth Arthur Kuhn, son of Mrs. Ralph A. White, Littlestown R. 2, and Arthur S. Kuhn, Stock St., Hanover, were united in marriage on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Westminster. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul Victor Helm. The couple was unattended.

The bride was attired in a white sleeveless organza street-length dress over a pink underskirt, featuring a round neckline, and tiny lace ruffles at three-inch intervals from shoulder to hemline. She wore a white sweetheart shell hat, with pink and white imitation floral trim, and pink gloves. The bride carried a white Bible, a gift of her brother, Fred A. Warner, topped with an arrangement of flowers.

The newlyweds will spend some time at Holloway Beach, Md., and upon their return will reside, for the present, at the home of the bride, Mrs. Kuhn, a graduate of the Littlestown High School, class of 1952, and is employed in the office of the Windsor Shoe Company, Inc., Littlestown. Mr. Kuhn is a graduate of Carson Long Military School, New Bloomfield, class of 1953, and is vice president of Kuhn Auto Sales, Hanover.

Lerew—Hoffman
Miss Mildred Evelyn Hoffman, daughter of Mr. John W. Hoffman and the late Mrs. Hoffman, Dillsburg R. 1, became the bride of Francis Luther Lerew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lerew, York Springs R. 1, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Paul's Franklin Lutheran and Reformed Church, near Dillsburg. The Rev. Howard Smith performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a light blue afternoon dress and the maid of honor Miss Ruth Pickles, Wellsville, wore a yellow afternoon ensemble.

Dale King, York Springs R. D., was the best man.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lerew left for a wedding trip to Canada.

Stiles—Bamforth
Lellah Rae Bamforth, a faculty member of Dallastown Area School district, and Dr. Austin Edward Stiles Jr., Dallastown, were married Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Christ Lutheran Church, Dallastown.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Grove, Dallastown, and the bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Austin E. Stiles, Martinsburg, W. Va.

Rev. Stiles, father of the bridegroom and pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Arden, W. Va., and Rev. Morris G. Zumbun, pastor of Christ Church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was graduated in 1950 from Dallastown High School, in 1952 from York Junior College and in 1954 from Juniata College. She is now vocal music supervisor for Dallastown Area elementary schools. The bridegroom, a graduate of Gettysburg College in 1952 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Chemistry, he was graduated last month from Temple University Dental School and commissioned a first lieutenant in the U. S. Army. Dr. Stiles will report in August to Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Tex., for two years active duty in U. S. Army Dental Corps.

Will Give Recital In Goodyear Church
Donald E. Golden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Golden, York Springs, will present an organ recital in the Goodyear Lutheran Church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The recital will include numbers by Bach, Purcell, Haydn and Karg-Elert. He will be assisted by Miss Charlotte Taylor, soprano, who will sing several numbers. The public is invited.

Golden will be a senior at Gettysburg College in September where he is majoring in music. He is organist-choir director at Zwingle Evangelical and Reformed Church in East Berlin. He is studying for the ministry of music and plans to do concerts.

Three Arrested In Dillsburg Fracas
A motorist was arrested for drunken driving and his two companions were charged with disorderly conduct as the result of a disturbance in Dillsburg about 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

At hearings held Saturday before Justice of the Peace Jesse Wilt of Carroll Township, Frank Heiges, 41, Dillsburg was held for August grand jury action on the drunken driving charge, and John W. Martin, 38, East Berlin R. 1, and Leroy S. Heiges, 45, Mechanicsburg, were committed to York County jail for 30 days in default of $10 fines.

The world has about a billion working people, says the International Labor Office.

A full-grown elephant weighs about 10,000 pounds.

Her husband, who was graduated from the same school in 1951, served two years in the Army. He spent 14 months in Germany. The bridegroom is employed at the Hanover-Made Furniture Company, Hanover.

Refresh without filling

SHE'S SURE of herself, the girl of today. For, thanks to her wholesome, modern taste for the lighter, less filling foods, she knows her figure's a joy to look at—that her slender waistline does things for her dress.

Today's Pepsi-Cola, reduced in calories, goes right along with this sensible trend in diet. Never heavy, never too sweet, Pepsi-Cola refreshes without filling.

of well-being; if we have troubles, so does the other fellow.

"We of the army are training 200 foreign divisions in American customs and ways because we believe our allies should have a chance to know our system and use our weapons.

"America has always been in the forefront of the struggle for human freedom and universal recognition of the dignity and worth of the individual man. We have always kept the faith with the millions who have sacrificed and offered up their lives for America. We have been projected into world leadership at history's most critical juncture. We seek peace, not from distrust of our own powers, but from a sense of moral obligation deeply rooted in the principles upon which our nation was built. We know that true peace is not just the absence of war, but the presence of justice throughout the world.

America's Need Greater

"Today America has greater need than ever before in her history for men and women who are proud of their heritage—who think in terms of what they owe their country, not what their country owes them. This nation was built by patriots. It has been defended by patriots throughout its history, and it will be kept strong and vigorous only by patriots.

"But, oh how we need the patriotism of the rank and file. Nobody coming from Washington can save this country. It is the little fellow and his patriotism who will continue to make our country great. I have traveled a great deal in inspecting our armed forces at home and abroad.

DEATHS

Charles C. Tracey

Charles C. Tracey, 75, retired automobile dealer of Blue Ridge Summit, died Friday night in Waynesboro Hospital after a long period of failing health.

Tracey became seriously ill in April and subsequently underwent major surgery at Doctors Hospital in Washington, D. C.

He had retired about 10 years ago from the auto dealership he

Last year I was at Pearl Harbor in December. I told an admiral that I wished to see the Arizona and Utah that are still there, sunk in the harbor. It was a bad day those years ago when the Japanese hit Pearl Harbor and a direct hit on the Arizona put her on the bottom.

"We got into a small boat and went out into the harbor. I saw some little things bobbing in the water and asked what they were. I was told that these were floats that made the outline of the Arizona. I asked that I might stand on the bridge, which is still above water, and was given permission to stand there. Then I asked of the men, and was told that 99 members of the crew were still in the battleship on the bottom of the bay. Then looking about I saw the flag still flew from the flagstaff of the Arizona, which was above water. I inquired and was told the flag was raised each morning and lowered each night. For a grateful nation—there is the Arizona, and there is the crew—forever part of the Navy.

"In closing I but want to mention a line from a poem. That line is, 'America's great song is still unsung.' That I think is true—do you?"

set up at Blue Ridge Summit some 40 years ago.

Tracey was born at Fountaindale, June 13, 1881, and at one time lived in Washington, D. C., and Winchester, Va. He was the developer of the community now known as Tracey's Corners, Pa., and gave to the volunteer fire department of Blue Ridge Summit the land on which the community center, fire station and ambulance headquarters are now located.

He was a Mason and had been a member of Hiram Lodge No. 10 in Washington, D. C. for about four decades.

He is survived by his wife, the former Etta Key Boyer.

Funeral services were conducted in Waynesboro at 10:30 a. m. today by the Rev. John R. McClain of Blue Ridge Summit and Rev. Charles Corbett of Thurmont, Md. Burial in Green Hill Cemetery, Waynesboro.

William Ezra Caylor

William Ezra Caylor, 68, Uniontown, Md., committed suicide Saturday morning by shooting himself in the head with a 22 caliber rifle. He was found on the second floor of his home by wife, Carrie Virginia Slonaker Caylor.

The time of death was estimated at about 7 o'clock in the morning. Caylor, it is said, had been despondent and was under the care of a doctor, Carroll County coroner, Dr. James T. Marsh, issued the certificate of death. State Trooper Kenneth W. Masemer investigated the death.

Caylor was the son of the late Ezra and Elizabeth Rodkey Caylor. He was a retired carpenter and a member of the Uniontown Church of God.

He is survived by his wife and three children George W. Caylor, Buffalo; James W. Caylor, Detroit; Mrs. John R. Corbin, New Windsor, Union Bridge R. D.; one sister Mrs. Manetta Powers, Uniontown. Nine grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services at the late home Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock with the Rev. J. H. Hoch officiating. Burial in the church cemetery. Friends may call at the Caylor home this evening.

Robert Lee BeMiller

Robert Lee BeMiller, seven-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert BeMiller, Littlestown R. 2, died at 8:25 a. m. Saturday at the home of his parents, Gilbert BeMiller and Loretta Carson BeMiller.

The child suffocated, according to of 21,000 feet and the Constellation was to fly 1,000 feet above the clouds at all times.

The head of the search and rescue mission, Capt. Byrd Ryland of March AFB, Calif., said that at the time of the crash the thunderheads rolled as high as 20,000 feet.

"Capt. Alvin C. Scott of Hamilton AFB, Calif., one of the senior search officers, called the crash a 'one-in-a-million, one-in-a-billion crash.'

Air Force officers agreed unanimously it must have been a collision.

Two Black Scars

A TWA spokesman discounted the possibility that one plane crashed first and the other later crashed while circling over examining the wreckage. He said that if this had been the case, the second plane would have radioed news of the crash.

Two black scars on buff-colored cliffs marked the crash scenes, near the confluence of the Little Colorado and Colorado rivers.

One scar was about a thousand feet up the cliff from the Colorado about 500 feet away was a piece of white metal, part of the Constellation's tail.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner.

Surviving are the parents, three brothers and sisters, Gilbert Jr., Lynn and Benn, at home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Burnell BeMiller, Hanover; the paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Effie BeMiller, Hanover, and the maternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Sease, Fairfield. Graveside services at 2 p. m. today at Rest Haven Cemetery. The Rev. Dr. Paul Levi Fouk, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, York St., officiated.

The other burn was on top of Chuar Butte and there was a trickle of wreckage, including a DC7 tail section, running down the bluff.

Capt. Dean Lewis of Luke AFB, Ariz., who spotted the DC7 wreckage while dodging cliffs at 300 feet, said he was sure both planes plunged straight down.

Capt. Womack, also of Luke, said it was possible the planes spiraled to earth completely out of control.

Womack added, "The time it takes for a plane to dive down from 21,000 feet is time for a lot of thinking."

Boulders Split

These were some of the things Capt. Womack and two others in his party found:

Three of the Constellation's engines, none of the DC7's.

A woman's coat, newly starched white shirts still in cellophane wrappers and fresh TWA napkins.

Thousands of tiny pieces of aluminum, few larger than two feet across.

Four-and five-foot boulders split in two.

TEACHER BREAK
KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — The 12 teachers in the suburban Burke Acres School District get a real recess at noon these days. Mothers of the pupils relieve the teachers for the hour and a half middy class break.

The mothers direct play, supervise games, tell stories and draw on blackboards. The teachers get a chance to rest from the morning classroom grind — and to get ready for whatever the afternoon might bring.

TV DETERMINES
CINCINNATI (AP) — One manufacturer is using television to determine the sharpness of knives.

The TV set inspects chrome plated scraper blades used in lithography coating machines. It magnifies the blades' thin edges 286 times so that inspectors can check for tiny imperfections. Previously inspectors looked at the blades through an ordinary microscope.

Frank Connelly, machine shop manager and originator of his TV usage said inspectors get the job done twice as fast and with more accuracy.

The inspector moves the blade slowly through a holder under the microscope and the view is reproduced on a receiving set screen. Blades with irregularities are discarded.

ELVIS PRESLEY HAS VOCIFEROUS GROUP OF FANS

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — There are some things to be learned from writing a column criticizing Elvis Presley, the rock 'n' roll singer.

This young man has the most vociferous following of any performer who has come down the pike since Frank Sinatra's heyday. His followers—all young, apparently—display an emotional identification with him that is of unsurpassed intensity. They feel that a critique of Presley is a critique of teen-age youth today.

Those conclusions are based on 74 letters from 16 states which I received within a few days after my unkind remarks about Elvis were published. The letters still pour in, but that's a fair sampling: 72 pro-Presley; two anti-Presley. The two who agreed with me were a woman in St. Paul, Minn., and a woman in Corpus Christi, Tex. (By the way, fans, I'm 38 years old; I'm very old indeed.)

Some Opinions Revised

Well, I haven't changed my opinion of rock 'n' roll rhythm and Presley's ability to entertain me. But I have revised my opinion of many of his fans. Many are articulate and most intelligent, as well as vociferous. Only two wrote obscene letters. Thus I fared better than Ben Gross of the New York Daily News, the dean of New York TV critics, who was vilified with filthy letters after he held Presley's feet to the critical fires. Nobody annoyed me.

A lot of youngsters want me fired. It was suggested that I be assigned to writing "old-fashioned poetry."

Only 10 Anonymous.

Of the 72 anti-Mercer letters, only 16 were anonymous. That is a lower average of unsigned letters than generally prevails when adults become exercised over a subject—a heartening fact. It's good to see so many youths with the courage of their convictions to sign their names.

Of the 53 signed letters, 44 were from girls, seven from boys, and the remainder from groups. Presley's attraction to what used to be called the weaker sex in the bad old days is, of course, obvious.

But the most significant thing I found in the correspondence was the widely expressed opinion—either explicitly or by inference—that adults fail to understand the younger generation today. In effect the teen-agers said: "We want to express ourselves and Elvis Presley gives us the opportunity—and what's wrong with that?" When I criticized their current totem, Presley, they saw me as the old repressive order.

HOME GOES WILD

SHATTUCK, Okla. (AP) — George Howlett is wondering if there is something special that attracts wildlife to his home. A family of raccoons was found making its home in the attic.

As soon as that situation had been cleaned up, a family of skunks bedded down under the house. After some ticklish maneuvers, that family was evicted.

NEW WALL MOTIFS

A new idea involves self-adhesive plastic motifs in designs and colorings to permit decorative uses in the home. These "decorates" are made of velon with a paper backing that is easily removed. There is a wide selection of florals for living room and bath, fruits, vegetables and novelties for kitchen and dinette, animated pets and circus figures for the nursery. They will adhere to any dry clean surface that is smooth - wood, plastic, glass, metal, tile or wall paper, requiring no paste or moistening.

FENCED IN!

LA MESA, Calif. (AP) — Enthusiasm for pulling a pet puppy's tail got 2-year-old David Sandifer into trouble up to his ears.

Reaching for the tail through a wrought iron fence, David got his head caught. He couldn't get his ears back through the bars. Firemen had to spring the fence to free him.

Blue Sunoco First Choice of Automotive Engineers over all other premiums combined

IT'S PREMIUM IN EVERY WAY... STILL AT REGULAR GAS PRICE

We invited a large group of automotive engineers to try Blue Sunoco, boosted in octane, in their own cars and give us their reactions. The results of this survey, compiled by an independent firm of certified public accountants, make New Blue Sunoco the favorite.

43% already are users of Blue Sunoco

Of the 1,166 engineers who reported on '56 Blue Sunoco, 43% told us they were already users of our gasoline. This was a far greater number than reported using all other premium gasolines combined—perhaps the greatest testimonial any gasoline ever had!

Blue Sunoco is recommended for the newest high-compression cars when owners' manuals specify a premium gasoline.

Up again in octane

Blue Sunoco is the only gasoline that meets the new higher premium octane standards and sells at regular gas price. Follow the lead of automotive engineers. Make your own 10-gallon test today.

COMPARISON CHART

This is what automotive engineers reported after comparing New '56 Blue Sunoco with premium-priced gasolines in their own cars

93% say Blue Sunoco matches or exceeds premium-priced brands for overall performance	91% say Blue Sunoco matches or exceeds premium-priced brands for power and pick-up
85% say Blue Sunoco matches or exceeds premium-priced brands for anti-knock performance	86% say Blue Sunoco matches or exceeds premium-priced brands for miles per gallon
